Dedicated to a better Brisbane

Pathways out of Homelessness Grant recipients 2022-25

The following Pathways out of Homelessness Grant Program applicants were approved in the 2022-25 grant round.

Successful grant recipients received funding to deliver projects to enable new, innovative and sustainable solutions to address the growing community issue of homelessness.

A total of 3 organisations received funding to a total value of $1,056,970.00.

Applicants received multi-year funding spread across three years.

Organisation	Project	Amount approved
Brisbane Housing Company Limited	Brisbane Housing Company Ltd will utilise the expertise of a specialist mobile health provider to deliver bespoke and place-based health services to support residents in community housing with complex health needs.	Year 1 $49,860.00 Year 2 $52,353.00 Year 3 $54,971.00
Institute for Urban Indigenous Health Ltd	Vulnerable First Nations people and families will be supported through care plans using an early intervention model to prepare, establish and maintain their tenancy delivered by the Institute of Urban Indigenous Health Ltd.	Year 1 $150,000.00 Year 2 $150,000.00 Year 3 $150,000.00
Youth Advocacy Centre Inc	Meanwhile, the Youth Advocacy Centre Inc will provide a wrap-around advocacy support program for at risk young people aged 14-19 years to transition to permanent safe housing and access to stable community support.	Year 1 $100,574.00 Year 2 $188,452.00 Year 3 $160,760.00