

Knowledge Article

Community Maps

Dedicated to a better Brisbane

Download a portion of the 2002 contours

1. Open Brisbane City Council's Open Data website and search for Contours
 - a. Direct link

For DWG or JSON

2. Click on the Map tab
3. Select the grid cell of interest on the map
4. The popup that opens will contain a download link for the DWG file

5. Click the next arrow on the popup to reveal the download link for the JSON file

For Shapefile and other file types

6. Scroll down to Data and Resources subheading and click on the ArcGIS Hub Dataset link for Contours - 2002

Data and resources

ArcGIS Hub Datasets	Contours — 2002
Source API	Contours — 2002
Related Datasets	Contours — Spot heights — 2002
	Contours — 2002 — Image

7. In the new ArcGIS Hub window, zoom in to the area of interest

8. Select the Draw an area tool on the right-hand side of the map window

9. Draw the area of interest. Press Enter or double-click to close the area.

10. Select the Filter to this area option

11.(Optional) In the Location Filter window that pops up, add a Buffer Distance

A screenshot of the 'Location Filter' window. The 'Distance' input field is highlighted with a red box and contains the value '0'. The 'Units' dropdown menu is set to 'Meters'.

12.In the Summary panel on the left-hand side of the map window, Select Download

13. Toggle the filter to download only the contours intersecting your area of interest

14. Choose from the available file types and select Download

Shapefile

Download